WHY DIGICAMPUS?

When an institute is built then effective management of the organisation plays an important role in its success and growth. There are many evident examples in every sector where many well-planned organisations and institutes have failed to achieve their goals because of lack of proper channel of communication and monitoring.

DigiCampus which is a centralised monitoring and management system has been built in a way which enables educational institutes to manage all their functioning from User Management, Sending Notifications, Academic Details and Activities, CourseWare Completion Tracking, Students & Faculty Insights, Attendance Management, Student Interaction, Faculty Leave Management System, Grade Management, Fee Collection to Grievance Management to Messaging and Chat System, etc. in just one go and through one system.

This helps the administrator and management to monitor all the ongoing activities within the organisation and also provides a transparency about the activities and performance of all the members as well as addressing their grievances without any manipulation of data resulting into effective team management and administration.

Therefore, DigiCampus is a product which is a complete package for any organisation which prefers effective time management and where resources could be utilized in best possible manners. All the modules integrated into the product makes it a complete package allowing the system administrators to eventually plan and take their future course of action. It also allows conducting surveys or personal discussion if one wants to get opinion about something This provides the management with a good amount of data to analyze from and decide their future coarse of action.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED

ROLE BASED USER MANAGEMENT

The system allows the creation of multiple accounts and every account may have different privileges. This lets the organisation's management to monitor all the activities performed by an individual as well as it makes them to handle and execute all the operational tasks in the most effective manner possible.

EFFECTIVE OPERATION MANAGEMENT

It allows the management to manage all its human resources by investing less time and capital. From Students to Faculties, from leave management to marks evaluation to grievance addressal, the organisation can do all the things from one centralised system with easy and user-friendly UI to operate on.

SMART MONITORING

Data is one of the most important deciding factor when it comes to devising any plan or taking any decision. DigiCampus allows the organisation to fetch the reports of all the activities performed within a customised time frame to evaluate and decide and thence helps in making valuable decisions.

COST EFFECTIVE RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

It helps the organisation in reducing its expenses on resources responsible for handling all the aforementioned jobs manually as each module integrated into the product would require a team of people if done manually with high risk of human error involved in the same.

ONE STOP SOLUTION FOR YOUR EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE

DigiCampus is a culmination of different modules designed in a way to meet all the possible requirements required by an Institution. It facilitates the monitoring and execution of different operations from one system at one go!
